The Organizer and the Chief Judge

will resolve all requests for reclassification and will clarify any competition-related questions. For WSDC divisions, all current WSDC rules apply.

D. Common Requirements. If a majority of judges determine that any individual or couple has failed to meet one or more of the following requirements, a violation penalty will be applied:

- 1. Appropriate Behavior. It is the desire of the Organizer to permit expressive and exciting performances without sacrificing quality of dancing and good taste. To encourage this balance, any action that the judges believe would make them uncomfortable in a social dance setting (such as showing disrespect toward one's partner, other dancers, or the Event) is prohibited. Good sporting conduct must be demonstrated by all competitors throughout the event, both on and off the competition floor.
- 2. Swing Content. Minimum Swing Content as defined below is required in all divisions. Recognizable swing patterns are required in all competitions.

Contestants are required to attend the earliest meeting at which time they will be notified of final classification.

V. CONTEST MISCLASSIFICATION

If the error is discovered after the finals, they will be disqualified and barred from any subsequent competitions during the Event and their placement will be awarded to the next individual or couple in line for placement.

4. Both the teacher and student's performance is considered by the judges. Dance order will be randomly selected and posted prior to the start time. Limited to the first 15 entries received.

IX. JUDGING CRITERIA. Competitors will be judged on the following criteria:

A. Timing. Swing is danced beginning on the downbeat. Timing extends to much finer distinctions than a single beat. It includes whether a competitor is fractionally ahead or behind the beat as well as matching the syncopated "swing" of the music.

B. Teamwork. Swing is a connected, partner dance. The demonstration of this connection and the appearance of "lead/follow" or "action/reaction" between the partners is an expected part of any competition. One partner ignoring or "out-dancing" the other, or jeopardizing the safety of others indicates poor teamwork.

C. Technique. How well the competitors execute the movements comprising their dance constitutes technique. This includes, but is not limited to, control of balance and weight, foot placement, bodylines, and spins.

D. Choreography. The selection and order of movements and transitions executed during a dance comprise choreography. Good choreography demonstrates an intimate connection with the music and its phrasing as well as variety and contrast.

E. Musical Interpretation. How the dancer adjusts the flow of the dance to fit the tempo, mood and rhythm variations in the music. The music connection that the judges see when they observe the dancer while listening to the music.

F. Presentation. Creating an atmosphere of excitement by inviting and generating interest in a performance is the desired effect of good presentation. While providing a good show is one aspect of presentation, it cannot substitute for good dancing.

G. Penalties. Breach of these Rules shall result in penalties being assessed by the judges corresponding to the level of severity of the breach. Unless defined specifically elsewhere in these Rules, these levels and associated penalties are as follows:

1. Error. An error is an apparently unintentional breach of these Rules. Each error shall be penalized at the discretion of the judge observing the error. Examples of errors might include unintended loss of contact between partners or loss of balance.

2. Violation. A violation is a serious and apparently intentional breach of these Rules. Each violation may be penalized by a drop of one (1) or more positions in the final placement, or disqualification. A violation will be assigned when either a majority of judges or a minority of judges AND the Chief Judge concur that a violation has occurred. The amount of drop in placement will be determined by the Chief Judge and will be based on the magnitude of the violation. Examples of violations might include a lift in a Jack & Jill, a routine in Strictly Swing, or a maneuver that endangers another competitor. All decisions of the judges are final and may not be appealed. The Organizer will not intervene in any judging decisions.

H. Restarts. Restarts will only be permitted in the case of music system failure or other significant failure such as shoe or costume failure. Restarts will not be permitted for the reasons of contestant dissatisfaction with their performance, music or partner drawn, or duration of routine. A restart must be requested by the contestants prior to their departure from the competition floor and must be approved by the Chief Judge.

IX. DEFINITIONS

- A. Aerial. An aerial is a move where the dancer revolves around his or her lateral axis (i.e. flip) or his or her sagittal axis (i.e. cartwheel). Aerials are prohibited in all competitions except Showcase and Rising Star.
- B. Breakaway. A breakaway is a set of symmetric or complementary movements or footwork executed by couple intentionally breaking contact (except for spins and turns). Breakaways phrased properly to the music are allowed in all competitions.
- C. Costume. Attire which, in the opinion of the judges, is specifically designed for couples competition and would not generally be worn for social dancing is considered a costume. Costumes are prohibited in all non-routine competitions. Matching or complimentary outfits suitable for social dancing are not considered costumes and are allowed in Strictly Swing.
- D. Entrance. An entrance is the initial, pre-choreographed segment of a performance, during which the competitors formally enter the competition floor and prepare to dance. Acknowledging one's partner, the judges, or the audience is not considered an entrance. Formal entrances are prohibited in all non-routine competitions.
- E. Exit. An exit is the final, pre-choreographed segment of a performance, during which the competitors formally leave the competition floor. Acknowledging one's partner, the judges, or the audience is not considered part of an exit. Formal exits are prohibited in all non-routine competitions.
- F. Gymnastic Maneuver. A gymnastic maneuver is any maneuver that illustrates a gymnastic or acrobatic ability which is not part of a recognizable swing pattern. Examples of gymnastic maneuvers might include back-flips or cartwheels. Gymnastic maneuvers are prohibited in all competitions except Showcase and Rising Star.
- G. Lift. A lift is a move where the dancer is not in contact with the floor and the dancer's weight is supported by his or her partner. Lifts are prohibited in all competitions except Showcase and Rising Star. Swing, Carolina Shag, East Coast Swing, Jitterbug, Lindy, Lindy Hop, Push, West Coast Swing, and Whip are recognized as styles of swing. The Organizer will consider additional styles for recognition prior to a competition's registration deadline.
- H. Relative Placement. This is a scoring system that assigns an equal numerical value to each judge's raw scores, so that each judge has an equal vote in the final outcome. Relative Placement is now widely accepted at major swing dance events.
- I. Routine. Any segment that, in the opinion of the judges, consists of prearranged choreography (to include symmetric or complementary movements or footwork) that does not reflect the music is considered a routine. Routines are prohibited in all competitions except Classic, Showcase, Rising Star and Pro-am Routines.
- J. Side-By-Side. A side-by-side is a set of symmetric or complementary movements or footwork executed by a couple which is not a clearly leadable derivative of a recognizable swing pattern. Side-by-side segments are often executed with the partners next to each other, both facing the judges, but segments executed in other positions (e.g., back-to-back, open position, closed position) that meet the above description are defined as side-by-sides for the purposes of these Rules. Side-by-sides phrased properly to the music are allowed in all competitions.
- K. Swing Content. A minimum swing content of 90% is required in all Jack & Jill and Strictly Swing divisions. A minimum swing content of 80% is required in the Classic division. A minimum swing content of 60% is required in the Showcase division. Recognizable swing patterns are required in all competitions.
- L. WSDC. World Swing Dance Council
